

At this Thanksgiving season, I am thankful for the incredible City we live in. Ruston is truly “special”. A Hallmark kind of town that can’t be reproduced, where citizens really do care about their city, the school opportunities, the universities, their churches, and most of all, their neighbors.

I am thankful for a City Council that considers itself a team that wants to make our city exceptional and works together to accomplish that.

I am thankful for 300 City employees, who work tirelessly to make sure our residents have all the service we can offer, at great rates and always available.

I pray that Ruston continues to strive to become a city that others look to for example of what can happen when we all work together for common goals and dreams.

So, at this time of the year we say, “Thank You” to all of you who make Ruston a place where “Faith, Family, and Friends” still make a difference.

Happy Thanksgiving!
