

The Unity Community Group has endorsed Mike Smith for Ruston City Court Judge because of his involvement in the community and the actions he has taken as a prosecutor to help young men turn their lives around. Founded in 1985, the Unity Community Group is a volunteer organization of Ruston men committed to mentoring young men and steering them toward productive lives.